COLLECT

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil and to make us the children of God and heirs of eternal life: grant that we, having this hope, may purify ourselves even as he is pure; that when he shall appear in power and great glory we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever. Amen

OT READING

Daniel 12: 1—3

Ken Smith

In the third year of King Cyrus a word was revealed to Daniel. 'At that time Michael, the great prince the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.'

EPISTLE

Hebrews 10: 11 — 25

Stella Harding

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, 'he sat down at the right hand of God,' and since then has been waiting 'until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.' For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, 'This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds,' he also adds, 'I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.' Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin. Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Gradual Hymn                      643 God beyond earth's finest treasures

GOSPEL                                      Mark 13: 1— 8
As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, 'Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!' Then Jesus asked him, 'Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.' When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, 'Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?' Then Jesus began to say to them, 'Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.'

Father Jeremy's Notes

Saturday 1st December A Day with John Bell from the Iona Community

John will be looking at the theme of Living and Praying the Psalms. What is their real significance and how can they be part of our life? There is only one ticket left for the congregation of All Saints. However there are tickets still on line at EVENTBRITE, but they are selling quickly. The day will begin at 9.30am and finish at 3.30pm. Coffee and tea will be provided and cakes but you will need to bring a packed lunch.

Confirmation 2019

In January we will begin Confirmation Classes for children and adults. The Confirmation will take place at Holy Trinity, Cookham sometime between 9th and 11th April. If you are interested please sign the list at the back of the church. This will be the last confirmation service taken by Bishop Andrew before he retires from ministry at Easter.

Tuesdays at 1.30pm Altwood School Christian Union meeting

As part of our Mission Action Plan we are trying to grow our relationships with our schools. This group has been long established, but it is pleasing to report that it is growing in number. Alongside members of the Royal British Legion we shared a moving ceremony last Friday to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the ending of WW1.
