346 We plough the fields and scatter

COLLECT

Eternal God, you crown the year with your goodness and give us the fruits of the earth in their season: grant that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

EPISTLE

1 Timothy 6:6-10 (NT p 226) Charlie Warren

There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

Gradual Hymn: Harvest Samba

Cabbages and greens,
Broccoli and beans,
Cauliflower and roasted potatoes,
Taste so good to me!

Golden corn and wheat,
Oats and sugar beet,
Fluffy rice and tasty spaghetti,
Wonderful to eat!

Apricots and plums,
Ripened in the sun,
Oranges and yellow bananas,
Good for everyone!

Coffee, cocoa, tea,
Growing naturally,
Herbal plants and all kinds of spices
Very nice indeed!

*It's another Harvest Festival
When we bring our fruit
and vegetables,
'Cause we want to share the best
of all*

GOSPEL Matthew 6: 25 -33

'No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth. Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you – you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, "What will we eat?" or "What will we drink?" or "What will we wear?" For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Offertory Hymn 55 Come, ye thankful people, come

Communion Hymn 13 All things bright and beautiful

1. Sing of the Lord's goodness,

Father of all wisdom,
come to him and bless his name.
Mercy he has shown us, his love is for ever,
faithful to the end of days.

*Come then, all you nations,
sing of your Lord's goodness,
melodies of praise and thanks to God.
Ring out the Lord's glory,
praise him with your music,
worship him and bless his name.*

2. Power he has wielded,
honour is his garment,
risen from the snares of death.

His word he has spoken,
one bread he has broken,
new life he now gives to all.

3. Courage in our darkness,
comfort in our sorrow,
Spirit of our God most high ;
solace for the weary, pardon for the sinner,
splendour of the living God.

4. Praise him with your singing, praise him
with the trumpet,
praise God with the lute and harp ;
praise him with the cymbals, praise him
with your dancing,
praise God till the end of days.

Ernest Sands (b. 1949)

OTHER NEWS

Everyone is welcome to come along to our first "proper" meeting of the new season to hear Dorothy Strack-Hankey (no stranger to many here) speak about Food Intolerances and Allergies. She will talk about healthy food ideas and refreshments will be provided. Copies of our new programme should be available at the back of church; do take one and come along to anything that takes your fancy.

Brenda Illott

Mothers' Union Wednesday 14th October 2.30 pm in the Parish Centre

Our speaker this month will be Joan Tiley, a talented artist, who will demonstrate her skills for us. Do join us for what promises to be a very interesting and 'crafty' meeting followed by the usual refreshments and social friendship.

2015 Combined Charities Fair, Saturday, 24th October, 10 am to 3 pm, Town Hall. Care has a "crocks and bric-a-brac" stall: if you have any good quality items to donate, place call Mary Forrest 01628 626579 (evening). Mary would also appreciate some help: please call her if you have some time to man the stall.

Churches Together in Maidenhead needs someone to organise the volunteers for the Christmas Day lunch at SportsAble. The person would need to be available on Christmas Day to work with other members of their team to direct the work of the volunteers who arrive on the day to help. Please contact Tony Weeks 01628 627265 or email tonyweeks@maidenhead6.freemove.co.uk. They really need your help.

Rosary. A small group will be meeting monthly in the Birinus Room to say the Rosary and pray for our Church and Parish on Thursday evenings. The first such meeting is this week, Thursday 8th October, at 7pm. Anyone who would like to join in is welcome (no previous experience of the Rosary necessary); duration about half an hour.

John Ainslie.
