Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless until they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

EPISTLE

Philippians 3: 1—9 (NT p212) Julia Wakeling

Gradual Hymn

1. As the deer pants for the water

So my soul longs after you.
You alone are my heart's desire
And I long to worship you.

Only you can satisfy.

You alone are the real joy-giver
And the apple of my eye.

*You alone are my strength, my shield,
To you alone may my spirit yield.
You alone are my heart's desire
And I long to worship you.*

3. You're my friend and you are my brother,
Even though you are a king.
I love you more than any other,
So much more than anything.

2. I want you more than gold or silver,

Martin Nystrom, based on Psalm 42: 1-12

GOSPEL

Luke 10: 1—12

The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near." I tell you, on that day, it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

Offertory Hymn

1. From heav'n you came, helpless babe,
entered our world, your glory veiled;
not to be served but to serve,
and give your life that we might live.

*This is our God, the Servant King;
he calls us now to follow him,
to bring our lives as a daily offering of worship to the Servant King.*

2. There in the garden of tears,
my heavy load he chose to bear;

his heart with sorrow was torn,
'Yet not my will but yours,' he said.

3. Come see his hands and his feet,
the scars that speak of sacrifice,
hands that flung stars into space
to cruel nails surrendered.

4. So let us learn how to serve,
and in our lives enthrone him;
each other's needs to prefer,
for it is Christ we're serving.

*Graham Kendrick (b. 1950) (c) 1983 Kingsway's

Mothers' Union Wednesday 11th October 2.30pm in the Parish Centre

There is no speaker this month, so we plan to have an informal and relaxing chat together; we do not often have the opportunity just to enjoy each other's company. It would be good to see all our members gathered together – we may even have a fun quiz! Do join us if you can, everyone is welcome.
