Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Gradual Hymn

1. Jesus Christ is waiting,

Waiting in the streets;
No-one is his neighbour,
All alone he eats.
Listen, Lord Jesus,
I am lonely too;
Make me, friend or stranger,
fit to wait on you.

in the kingdom's causes
let me rage with you.

3. Jesus Christ is healing,
healing in the streets;
curing those who suffer,
touching those he greets.
Listen, Lord Jesus,
I have pity too;
let my care be active,
healing just like you.

Listen, Lord Jesus,
I feel triumph too;
on suspicion's graveyard,
let me dance with you.

2. Jesus Christ is raging, raging in the streets
where injustice spirals
and all hope retreats.
Listen, Lord Jesus,
I am angry too;

4. Jesus Christ is dancing,
dancing in the streets,
where each sign of hatred
his strong love defeats.

5. Jesus Christ is calling,
calling in the streets,
'Come and walk faith's
tightrope,
I will guide your feet.'
Listen, Lord Jesus,
let my fears be few;
walk one step before me,
I will follow you.

GOSPEL

Matthew 22: 1—14

Once more Jesus spoke to the chief priests and Pharisees in parables, saying: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, "Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet." But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, "The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet." Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, "Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?" And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

Churchyard Working Party Saturday 28th October

I am sure you will all have noticed the amazing work carried out in the churchyard by a group of enthusiasts from the congregation. We would like to have another working party on the morning of 28 October, anytime from 9.30 onwards. Please join us and at the same time learn something of those who preceded us in worshipping at All Saints. No gardening experience at all needed just tools such as secateurs, loppers, shears, hoes – and gloves. Coffee, tea, Danish pastries and biccies in abundance. Ken Smith
