"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of All Saints, situate at Boyne-hill aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Bray described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said Church, and that the same should be named "The District Chapelry of Boyne-hill."

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Bray, in the county of Berks, and diocese of Oxford, which is situate on the northern side of an imaginary line, commencing in the middle of a road leading from White Waltham to Braywick, at the point where such road crosses the boundary between the said parish of Bray and the parish of White Waltham, and extending thence eastward by Great Lowbrooks and Ockwells along the middle of such road to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Dog-kennel-lane, and extending thence in a northern direction along the middle of such last-mentioned lane to a point opposite to the middle of another road or lane called Curles-lane, leading to the farm called Shoppenghanger, and extending thence first in an eastern and then in a north-eastern and then in a northern direction along the middle of such last-mentioned road or lane, and of the road leading from Braywick aforesaid to Maidenhead, to the boundary between the said parish of Bray and the parish of Cookham."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof and to order, and it is hereby ordered that the proposed assignment of a District Chapelry to the consecrated Church of All Saints, situate at Boyne-hill, in the parish of Bray, in the county of Berks, to be called "The District Chapelry of Boyne-hill," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said Church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.
