O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

GOSPEL

Luke 8: 26—39

Jesus and his disciples arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me' – for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss. Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

Offertory Hymn 235 O Jesus, I have promised

Anthem during Communion Be still for the presence of the Lord Arr R Shepherd

Closing Hymn

1. To God be the glory!
great things he hath done;
so loved he the world
that he gave us his Son;
who yielded his life
an atonement for sin,
and opened the life-gate
that all may go in.

2. O perfect redemption,
the purchase of blood!
to ev'ry believer
the promise of God;
the vilest offender
who truly believes,
that moment from Jesus
a pardon receives.

*Praise the Lord, praise the Lord!
let the earth hear his voice;
praise the Lord, praise the Lord!
let the people rejoice.
Q come to the Father,
through Jesus the Son,
and give him the glory;
great things he hath done.*

3. Great things he hath taught us,
great things he hath done,
and great our rejoicing
through Jesus the Son;
but purer, and higher,
and greater will be
our wonder, our rapture, when Jesus we see.
(Fanny J. Crosby) 1818-66)

Postlude Voluntary in G minor J Stanley

OTHER NOTICES

Tuesday Club & Men of All Saints Ramble Tuesday 21st June

This will leave from outside Waltham St Lawrence Church at 7.00pm promptly! There is parking outside the church and along Neville Close which is just opposite the church. You're not allowed to park in the Neville Hall car park itself. The fewer cars we have to take the better probably. It's a very attractive 3.4 miles, all flat, and we believe this to be a totally new ramble for the club. Stout shoes and long trousers are recommended. There are 4 stiles. We'll finish up back in the Bell pub. Please let me (01628 673884) know if you'd like a lift .

Jan Moss

COMMUNITY CHOIR The local community choir is moving from All Saints School to the Church from September. Why not come to their end of year social evening (refreshments will be provided) at 7.30pm on Wednesday 22nd June at All Saints School to listen to some of the music they enjoy singing. If you enjoy it too, you could join them in September. No auditions!
