GOSPEL

Matthew 21: 33 — 46

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: 'Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watch-tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country. When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them, saying, "They will respect my son." But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, "This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance." So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They said to him, 'He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures: "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes"?' Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom. The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls.' When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them. They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

Sermon Fr Neil

Offertory Hymn 117 Praise to the Holiest in the height

Communion Hymn 473 I come with joy to meet my Lord

Closing Hymn

1. O Lord, my God,
when I in awesome wonder,
consider all the worlds
thy hand has made,
thy hand has made,
I see the stars,
I hear the rolling thunder,
thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed.

2. And when I think that God, his Son not sparing,
sent him to die,
I scarce can take it in that on the cross,
my burden gladly bearing,
he bled and died
to take away my sin.

*Then sings my soul,
my Saviour God to thee:
How great thou art,
how great thou art.
Then sings my soul,
my Saviour God to thee:
How great thou art,
how great thou art.*

3. When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
and take me home,
what joy shall fill my heart;
when I shall bow
in humble adoration,
and there proclaim;
my God, how great thou art.

Father Jeremy's Notes

Friday 10th October 9.00am Everyone is welcome to share in the Pilgrim Eucharist before the pilgrims go off to Walsingham.

Many thanks to our flower arrangers who created such a beautiful backdrop of colour for the Harvest Festival, and for the donations to OAK which have raised over £200.

Many thanks to all those who shared in the reflective and moving Harvest Rock Shop with a mixture of modern songs, Taizé chants and reflective prayers. People came from other churches to share the activities, service and hospitality. Many thanks to those who prepared such delicious food. It is very encouraging to see the young people who play the instruments growing in confidence, and we look forward to their participation in our 10.00am Eucharist in the future.

CHOIR RECRUITMENT In order to provide as strong a lead as possible to the singing, we need to enlarge the choir. A number of people have already expressed an interest in doing so and I wanted to publicise this recruitment drive more widely. There are many benefits to choral singing, physically, mentally and socially. Also, it does not require a great deal of skill or prior experience to participate but, some people may be deterred by the time commitment or having the confidence to start. There are a number of ways in which we can be flexible accommodate people's availability and through practice and training build skills and confidence. For example working with the choir for an occasional service rather than singing every week. If you are interested, or know some else who might be, please see me after the 10:00 am service and we can explore possibilities Brian Graves

Pilgrim Course on the Eucharist Starts 8.00pm every Wednesday from 8th October until 12th November in the Birinus Room. Sessions will finish at 9.30pm. Please use the dedicated sign-up sheet at the back of Church. The course book costs £5.99 (although it could be less, depending on numbers). Tick the box, and a book will be purchased for you for which you can pay on receipt. Fr Neil

CHILDRENS' SOCIETY BOXES It's time once again to hand these in. Please give them to me in Church or leave them in the Parish Office for me to collect. Thanks for your continued support. Anne Clark, Honorary Local Secretary Message from Tony Weekes re Churches Together Christmas Day Lunch At least two new people who are willing and able to drive People-to-Places (P2P) buses on Christmas Day to take guests to the lunch event at about 12 noon and take them home again at about 4.00pm. If the people are already MIDAS trained to drive P2P buses that would be great. But otherwise we can arrange MIDAS training with P2P for new drivers. We will pay the cost of any training. However the volunteer drivers would have to attend a short course and have a practical assessment to check their knowledge. Anyone interested should please contact Adam Stylo (family@stylo.name) as soon as possible if they are able to help.
