We are looking forward to giving Mike Ansell a warm welcome when he comes to recount to us his trip to the Holy Land. We anticipate a fascinating afternoon, and invite any interested visitors to enjoy with us his stories from that fascinating country. We shall be holding a raffle whilst enjoying a cup of tea afterwards.

Almighty Father, who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples with the sight of the risen Lord: give us such knowledge of his presence with us, that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life and serve you continually in righteousness and truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, now and for ever. Amen.

GOSPEL

Luke 24: 13— 35

On that same day, two of the disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, 'What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?' They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, 'Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?' Jesus asked them, 'What things?' They replied, 'The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see Jesus.' Then he said to them, 'Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?' Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.' So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized Jesus; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?' That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, 'The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!' Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Sermon Fr Jeremy

Offertory Hymn

1. Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know,
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown
in you, and you in me?

3. Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the pris'ners free,
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean
and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean
in you, and you in me?

Will you use the faith you've found
to reshape the world around through my sight and touch and
sound
in you, and you in me?

2. Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind,
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare
should your life attract or scare,
will you let me answer prayer
in you, and you in me?

4. Will you love the 'you' you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside,
and never be the same?

5. Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you,
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go
where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
in you, and you in me.
*John L. Bell (b. 1949) and Graham
Maule (b. 1958)*

Communion Hymn

473 I come with joy to meet my Lord

Closing Hymn

1. Sing of the Lord's goodness,
Father of all wisdom,
come to him and bless his name.
Mercy he has shown us, his love
is for ever,
faithful to the end of days.

2. Power he has wielded,
honour is his garment,
risen from the snares of death.
His word he has spoken,
one bread he has broken,
new life he now gives to all.

4. Praise him with your singing,
praise him with the trumpet,
praise God with the lute and
harp ;
praise him with the cymbals,
praise him with your dancing,
praise God till the end of days.

Ernest Sands (b. 1949)

*Come then, all you nations,
sing of your Lord's goodness,
melodies of praise and thanks to God.
Ring out the Lord's glory,
praise him with your music,
worship him and bless his name.*

3. Courage in our darkness,
comfort in our sorrow,
Spirit of our God most high ;
solace for the weary, pardon for
the sinner,
splendour of the living God.

Fr Kevin Scully is leading another pilgrimage next year. Please see leaflets at the back of the Church for more info.

OTHER NOTICES

Tuesday Club 2nd May 8.00pm in the Birinus Room Our old friend, Hugh Granger, returns. This time to tell us about the Great Train Robbery. All welcome. Brenda Ilott

Sunday 7th May 6.00pm at All Saints The Examen with Jeanette

I will be leading our Sundays at Six service and introducing The Examen. It is a method of reviewing your day in the presence of God. It's a time set aside for thankful reflection on where God is in your everyday life. It has five steps and it usually takes about 15-20 minutes. It would be lovely if some of our congregation is able to join us.

Christian Aid Week 2017: 14 - 20 May The collection envelopes are at the back of the Church; please take a road or a street if you can, and help raise funds for this year's campaign. The important dates during the week are as follows:

Saturday 13th May, 10am - 12 noon: Coffee Morning at High Street Methodist Church; there is a cake and produce stall - if you are able to provide any home-made food items (cakes, jams, chutneys etc.) please let Dorothy Strack-Hankey know (01628 311153; mobile 07743 323635; dorothy_strack@yahoo.co.uk).

Sunday 14th May, 6.00pm : Christian Aid Service, United Reformed Church, West Street, Maidenhead

Sunday 14th - Saturday 20th May : Delivery and collection of envelopes
For those who haven't been involved in Christian Aid Week before you are asked to deliver an envelope at the start of the week to the houses in the road / street that you pick, and to return at the end of the week to collect those envelopes; it is your choice as to exactly when you do that, provided the envelopes are collected by the end of Saturday 20th May. If you need any more information please speak to me. Thank you very much for your help; by collecting you will be joining with thousands to show God's love by giving security and comfort to refugees. Stella Harding
