Opening Hymn 287 Praise and thanksgiving

COLLECT

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth; send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

EPISTLE

Galatians 5: 1 & 13—25

Louise O'Dwyer

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another. Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

GOSPEL

Luke 9: 51 — 62

When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set towards Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, 'Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?' But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village. As they were going along the road, someone said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' And Jesus said to him, 'Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.' To another Jesus said, 'Follow me.' But he said,

'Lord, first let me go and bury my father.' But Jesus said to him, 'Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.' Another said, 'I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.' Jesus said to him, 'No one who puts a hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

Father Jeremy's Notes

The theme of the 10.00am Service this week is GIFTS and during the service I shall bless the Churchwardens and any members of the PCC of the PCC who are present.

NOTICES

Painting Raffle

Our resident artist, Reg Denison, has generously donated a painting of the Guards Club Bridge over the Thames at Maidenhead, to raise funds at our fete on Saturday 6th July. The picture is displayed at the back of church and tickets are available now at £2 each or three for £5. If you would like an opportunity to win it please buy tickets now and help raise funds for the fete.

Summer Fete Saturday 6 July Just one week to go!

Please remember our popular Wines of the World raffle. You can drop bottles off at the Parish Office this week. The same principle applies to wine or even some spirits as top prizes for the Tombola; please label clearly if it is for Wines of the World or the Tombola to avoid confusion.

We still need books, bric a brac, toiletries & soft cuddly toys as there is going to be another separate stall for teddies & their friends. Items can be left at the back of church. Please be on the look out for gazebos and stands for parasols! You all rallied to the cause last year & came up trumps on the day so we were all protected from the sun. It would be wonderful if we had a similar response this year! It really does make a huge difference, and if anyone can lend coolboxes to help the cold drink stalls keep their wares deliciously cold they would be gratefully received.

LOOK OUT FOR A DUCK

The Hook a Duck stall is always very popular with younger fete-goers but since last year our ducks have gone into hibernation and have not yet emerged. If anyone knows what has happened to them since last July, or just happens to have a spare set they could lend, please let me know.

Trustee post

We have a need for an additional Trustee. The Vicar and Churchwardens are the core Trustees but, the day to day needs are best served by people who are not Office holders at Church. There are normally 3 meetings per annum. Between meetings we would wish to establish a rotating duty Trustee to typically help out if access to the property is required by tradesmen and the Clerk is unavailable such as holidays etc.

Clerk

Our excellent Clerk, John Clark, has resigned after several years of outstanding service. The Clerk is the principal point of contact for the beneficiaries of the Trust. Liaison with tradespeople to gain access to the property to undertake maintenance work is a recurring demand. The Clerk alerts the Trustees to other maintenance work and typically arranges for estimates to be obtained. The Clerk is also point of contact for the call centre who operate the emergency alarm system in the house. Please speak to Fr Jeremy if you can help in either role.

Sides people

Our Sides people perform a valuable service for All Saints, providing a wonderful welcome to congregation and visitors alike and undertaking several important tasks during services. We have a few spaces on the rota at the moment and would be very pleased to hear from anyone who would like to be part of this special team. We will ensure that you have all the help and information you need to fulfil this key role; we also hold "get togethers" from time to time when we meet to talk about the role of a Sides person and how we might build upon the service we provide. If you think you might like to join the team, please speak to Ann Rawlings or me. Stella Harding

Senior Saints Wednesday 10th July 2.30pm in the Birinus Room

Please note the change of venue this month, as we welcome the Revd Joan Hicks to lead us on our annual Quiet Day. For those who may have access problems, it is possible to enter the Birinus Room from the Garden, where there are no steps to overcome. This meeting, of course, is during the week following the Church Fete, and it will be good to reflect on past activities and future plans. All are welcome to join us for a relaxing and reviving afternoon, followed as always with welcome refreshments. Margaret Hill & Wendy Channon

INTENTIONS FOR THE WEEK

Please continue to give thanks for Fr Jeremy's 25 years of ministry, almost 14 of them here at All Saints

Pray for a happy community day for our Fete on Saturday remembering especially Julia and everyone who is working so hard to make it a success.

Please remember the work of the Children's Society and Anne Clark, our representative.
