COLLECT

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

EPISTLE

Ephesians 4: 25 — 5:2

John Ainslie

Putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbours, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil. Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labour and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy. Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Gradual Hymn

GOSPEL

John 6: 35, 41 — 51

Jesus said to the crowd, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.' Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' They were saying, 'Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus answered them, 'Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, "And they shall all be taught by God." Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

Saturday 15th August 11.00am in Church 70th Anniversary of Victory over Japan (VJ) Day.

At the request of the local branch of the Royal British Legion, we shall be marking this special anniversary of the end of the Second World War with a service on the day itself, Saturday 15th August. Please note it in your diaries so that we can have a full church on this auspicious occasion. It will be followed by a buffet luncheon at White Waltham airfield.

WW1 Guided Walks

I have planned a WW1 Guided Walk from All Saints Church, along local roads to the homes where some of the Fallen lived, finishing in our Churchyard. I am doing three WW1 Guided Walks in August: on Thursday 20th August at 6.00pm, Friday 21st August at 2.00pm and Saturday 22nd August at 10.30am. I am leading these Walks as part of the RBWM For King and Country Project. If you would like to book a place on a Walk then please contact me. The Walk will take up to one and a half hours.

BOILER REPLACEMENT APPEAL

Thank you to all those everyone who has contributed to the Boiler Replacement Fund so far. We raised over £4,500 in the first week of the appeal. We are looking to raise £12,000 in total. We would like to replace the boiler before the winter to ensure that we have continuity of heating. Please see the leaflet for how you can help.

HELP NEEDED Can you spare a few hours to help with the general running of our beautiful Church? We rely upon, and need more, volunteers for the running of the Church for all areas from cleaning to offering refreshments after services, helping welcome people to services and support the running of services through our sides persons and serving team, decorating the Church and giving people lifts to/from Church, along with grounds/garden maintenance and organising social events. Please complete the notice and return to the office/me if you can offer assistance, Thank you. Chris Watts.
