GOSPEL

Luke 10: 1 – 12

The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near." I tell you, on that day, it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

Sermon

The Rt Revd Andrew Proud, Bishop of Reading

Offertory Hymn

1. Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant, too.

2. We are pilgrims on a journey,
fellow travellers on the road;
we are here to help each other
walk the mile and bear the load.

3. I will hold the Christlight for you
in the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.

4. I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through.

5. When we sing to God in heaven
we shall find such harmony,
born of all we've known together of Christ's love and agony.

6. Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant, too.
Richard Gillard 1977 Scripture in Song/CopyCare Ltd

3. So easy, I receive the love You give to me
So easy, not dependent on my part
Flowing out to me the love within Your heart
Flowing out to me the love within Your heart.
Dave Bilborough

Refreshments will be served in the Parish Centre after the service thanks to Sue Stannett, Rachel Juden & the soupmakers.

Communion Hymns

1. Come and see, come and see,
come and see the King of love;
see the purple robe and crown of thorn he wears.
Soldiers mock, rulers sneer,
as he lifts the cruel cross;
lone and friendless now he climbs towards the hill.

*We worship at your feet,
where wrath and mercy meet,
and a guilty world is washed by love's pure stream.
For us he was made sin.
O help me take it in!
Deep wounds of love cry out, 'Father, forgive!'
I worship, I worship
the Lamb who was slain.*

1. From heav'n you came, helpless babe,
entered our world, your glory veiled;
not to be served but to serve,
and give your life that we might live.

*This is our God, the Servant King;
he calls us now to follow him,
to bring our lives as a daily offering
of worship to the Servant King.*

2. There in the garden of tears,
my heavy load he chose to bear;
his heart with sorrow was torn,

2. Come and weep, come and mourn
for your sin that pierced him there;
so much deeper than the wounds of thorn and nail.
All our pride, all our greed,
all our fallenness and shame;
and the Lord has laid the punishment on him.

3. Man of heaven, born to earth
to restore us to your heaven,
here we bow in awe before your searching eyes.
From your tears comes our joy,
from your death our life shall spring;
by your resurrection power we shall rise.
Graham Kendrick (b 1950)

'Yet not my will but yours,' he said.

3. Come see his hands and his feet,
the scars that speak of sacrifice,
hands that flung stars into space
to cruel nails surrendered.

4. So let us learn how to serve,
and in our lives enthrone him;
each other's needs to prefer,
for it is Christ we're serving.
Graham Kendrick (b. 1950)

Closing Hymn

58 The royal banners forward go

Exit Song

1. So freely, flows the endless love You give to me
So freely, not dependent on my part
As I am reaching out reveal the love within Your heart
As I am reaching out reveal the love within Your heart

2. Completely, that's the way You give Your love to me
Completely, not dependent on my part
As I am reaching out reveal the love within Your heart
As I am reaching out reveal the love within Your heart

6.00pm Passiontide Stations of the Cross Fr Jeremy & Jeanette

Father Jeremy's Notes

We welcome today Bishop Andrew for the fourth of our Lent sermons. The Bishop will be speaking of Mission as our invitation into Partnership. Following the service homemade soup will be served and any donations made will go the Bishop's charity.

Good news of John Ainslie as he has been offered and has accepted a curacy at Cookham. John will be ordained Deacon on Saturday 1st July at Christ Church Cathedral, Oxford at 2.00pm and following the service we will celebrate with John in Maidenhead at about 6.00pm. John has been an outstanding servant at All Saints and I am sure that he will be happy within the excellent team at Cookham.

OTHER NOTICES

Tuesday Club 8.00pm 4th April in the Birinus Room It's always a pleasure when one of our own members is able to share a story with us so we're delighted to invite you along to hear Rhona Latham tell us about 'A Chinese Wedding and Other Oriental Experiences'.
Brenda Illott

Holy Week Easter Services – Participation and Assistance.

We have a lovely programme of services planned over Holy Week. As usual the success of these services depends upon the involvement of our congregation, supported by many, including the assistance of our sidespersons team. If you are able to support these services could you please sign up on the list at the back of the Church, covering sidespersons roles and foot washing recipients through to Church cleaning and preparation of the Church. These essential roles are not limited to our existing teams and all members of our congregation are welcome to assist in helping to ensure our services run well with a great welcome.
Rod & Derek

EASTER LILIES If you would like to sponsor lilies for Easter Day in memory of your loved ones please put your name on the list on the cross aisle table and give the money to me, or put it in the wallbox marked Flower Fund. This is a lovely way to be involved in making the church look really beautiful for this Queen of Festivals. It is anticipated that the lilies will cost around £3.00 per stem this year and we will need to order them by 3rd April at the latest.

Mothers Union 2.30pm Wednesday 12th April in the Parish Centre

We shall be welcoming Peter Teague from Oxford this month, who will be talking about our financial links with the Head Office. He has visited All Saints in the past, and is a very friendly and helpful gentleman. He will be more than willing to discuss any associated queries or topics that arise. We shall also be manning our Sales Table at this meeting and there is always a sociable cup of tea to enjoy. All will be welcome.
