COLLECT

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, now and for ever. Amen.

O T READING Exodus 20: 1—17 (OT p71) Martin Whitehurst

N T READING 1 Corinthians 1: 18—25 (NT p177) Rachel Juden

1. How deep the Father's love for us

how vast beyond all measure, that He should give His only Son to make a wretch His treasure.

2. How great the pain of searing loss -
the Father turns His face away, as wounds which mar the chosen one bring many sons to glory.

3. Behold the man upon a cross,
my sin upon His shoulders;
ashamed, I hear my mocking voice
call out among the scoffers.

4. It was my sin that held Him there until it was accomplished;
His dying breath has brought me life -
I know that it is finished.

5. I will not boast in anything,
no gifts, no power, no wisdom;
but I will boast in Jesus Christ,
His death and resurrection.

6. Why should I gain from His reward?
I cannot give an answer,
but this I know with all my heart,

Gradual Hymn

GOSPEL John 2: 13 —22

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money-changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, 'Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a market-place!' His disciples remembered that it was written, 'Zeal for your house will consume me.' The Jews then said to him, 'What sign can you show us for doing this?' Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' They then said, 'This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

Father Jeremy's Notes

Wednesdays 3.00pm—4.00pm at the Vicarage Beginners' Spanish with Revd Roy Taylor. We are using Roy's skills as a language teacher to share a little simple Spanish over coffee/tea and cake.

The Young People's film club will meet at the Vicarage on Friday 13th March from 6.30pm to 8.00pm.

Thanks to all the young people who welcomed, served, provided desserts and shared conversation with some of our congregation at the first of the lunches we hope to host at the Vicarage over the coming year. I think, from the feedback, that everyone enjoyed themselves.

Thanks to everyone who celebrated St David on Sunday evening. Special thanks to Elaine and Mike for the Welsh cakes. They were delicious and a lovely way to finish the day.

Easter Lilies If you would like to sponsor lilies for Easter Day in memory of your loved ones please put your name on the list on the cross aisle table and give the money to me, or put it in the wallbox marked Flower Fund. This is a lovely way to be involved in making the church look really beautiful for this Queen of Festivals. It is anticipated that the lilies will cost around £3.00 this year.

Holy Week Services – Participation and Assistance. We have a lovely programme of services planned over Holy Week. As usual the success of these services depends upon the involvement of our congregation, supported by many, including the assistance of our sidespersons team. If you are able to support these services could you please sign up on the list at the back of the Church, covering sidespersons roles and foot washing recipients through to Church cleaning and preparation of the Church. These essential roles are not limited to our existing teams and all members of our congregation are welcome to assist in helping to ensure our services run well with a great welcome.
