Hymn

827 Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim

COLLECT

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

O T READING

Isaiah 58: 9b — 14

Alison Leigh

You shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in. If you refrain from trampling the sabbath, from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honourable; if you honour it, not going your own ways, serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs; then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

EPISTLE

Hebrews 3: 18 — 29

Jeanette Lock

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. (For they could not endure the order that was given, 'If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.' Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I tremble with fear.') But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.' This phrase, 'Yet once more,' indicates the removal of what is shaken – that is, created things – so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Gradual Hymn 116 Be thou my guardian and my guide

GOSPEL Luke 13: 10 — 17

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Fr Jeremy's Notes

Sunday 1st September

The speaker at the 10.00am Parish Eucharist will be Margaret Thomas telling us about the new Thames Hospice, which is being built at Bray.

NOTICES

HERITAGE OPEN DAYS

All Saints will be open again this September as part of the national "Heritage Open Days Scheme", when many buildings throughout the country open their doors to visitors, and we are publicised on their national website.

Specifically we will be open on Friday 13 September from 10.00am to 12 noon.

Saturday 14 September from 9.30am to 4.30pm when there will be guided tours.

Sunday 15 September from 12 noon to 4.30pm for guided tours and an organ recital,

Monday 16 September to Saturday 21 September from 10.00am to 12noon by ringing the Parish Office in advance.

Sunday 22 September from 12 noon to 4.30pm with a tour and possibly cream teas (volunteers? See me please). You are all very welcome. Indeed, can you afford to miss it?!

Sunday 22 September will be particularly special because Fr. Jeremy will be preaching on an aspect of All Saints' heritage in the morning and – advanced notice – there will be a special meeting in the Parish Centre immediately after the 10.00am service for our fund-raising launch and for you to ask any questions. We don't expect it to take too long. Refreshments and cakes will be served. The day will culminate with Evensong and Benediction at 6.00pm.

Will anyone who would be interested to act as a "Heritage Day Greeter" (not difficult) to support me please let me know and I will be happy to brief them in advance about the building. A great opportunity to place All Saints before the public. Ken Smith.

Ride & Stride

Sharing the day on Saturday 14 September will be "Ride & Stride", Berkshire Churches Trust ("BCT") annual fund raising event.

This is the day when many Churches across Berkshire open their doors for visitors arriving by bike or on foot. The "riders and striders" are encouraged to get sponsorship for the number of Churches they visit during the day with the money raised going to BCT for their valuable work in supporting local Churches; All Saints has benefited from this support in the past which is why the day is so important to us. In addition, 50% of the sponsorship money raised by members of All Saints will come back directly to the Church.

All Saints will be open from 9.30am to welcome the "Riders and Striders" and to offer refreshments to all our visitors, and we are looking for a team of volunteers to act as Ride & Stride Stewards over the day. There is a sign up sheet with hourly slots at the back of the Church if you are able to help.

There will also be information at the back of the Church shortly about the participating Churches. In the meantime there are already some sponsorship forms there for you to pick up and for the riders and striders to get started; you can also sponsor the Stewarding Team if you prefer. Stella Harding

CHURCH DIARIES

Great news—the 2020 Church diaries are for sale at the back of the Church. They're bigger this year but still only 50p! Money in the wall safe please.
