GOSPEL

Matthew 6: 25 — 34

Jesus taught his disciples, saying: 'Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you – you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, "What will we eat?" or "What will we drink?" or "What will we wear?" For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today's trouble is enough for today.'

Sermon

Offertory Hymn

1. Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant, too.

2. We are pilgrims on a journey, fellow travellers on the road;
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

3. I will hold the Christlight for you in the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.

4. I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through.

5. When we sing to God in heaven
we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together
of Christ's love and agony.

6. Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant, too.

Richard Gillard 1977 Scripture in Song/CopyCare Ltd

Communion Hymn

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
where there is hatred,
let me bring your love.
Where there is injury
your pardon, Lord.
And where there's doubt,
true faith in you.

*Oh Master,
grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved, as to love,
with all my soul.*

2. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life,

let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness
only light,
and where there's sadness
ever joy.

Oh Master, etc

3. Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning
that we are pardoned,
in giving to all men
that we receive,
and in dying that we're
born to eternal life.

Sebastian Temple

Closing Hymn

1. Judge eternal, throned in splendour
Lord of lords and King of kings, with thy living fire of judgement
purge this realm of bitter things:
solace all its wide dominion
with the healing of thy wings.

2. Still the weary folk are pining for the hour that brings release:
and the city's crowded clangour

cries aloud for sin to cease;
and the homesteads and the woodlands plead in silence for their peace.

3. Crown, O God, thine own endeavour;
cleave our darkness with thy sword;
feed thy people's hungry spirits
with the richness of thy word:
cleanse the body of this nation
through the glory of the Lord.

Henry Scott Holland (1847-1918)
