Almighty God, whose blessed apostles Peter and Paul glorified you in their death as in their life: grant that your Church, inspired by their teaching and example, and made one by your Spirit, may ever stand firm upon the one foundation, Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

N T READING

Acts 12: 1 — 11

Anne Clark

About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword. After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the festival of Unleavened Bread.) When he had seized him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. While Peter was kept in prison, the church prayed fervently to God for him. The very night before Herod was going to bring him out, Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison. Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him, saying, 'Get up quickly.' And the chains fell off his wrists. The angel said to him, 'Fasten your belt and put on your sandals.' He did so. Then he said to him, 'Wrap your cloak around you and follow me.' Peter went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening with the angel's help was real; he thought he was seeing a vision. After they had passed the first and the second guard, they came before the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went outside and walked along a lane, when suddenly the angel left him. Then Peter came to himself and said, 'Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.'

EPISTLE

2 Timothy 4: 6-8, 17-18

Jan Moss

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever.

Gradual Hymn683 For all the saints who showed your love*GOSPEL

Matthew 16: 13 — 19

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.'

*Father Jeremy's NotesSunday 8th July

We welcome our friend, the Revd Keith Smith (brother of Ken), to celebrate and preach at both services.

Larchfield Holiday Club Tuesday 24th—Friday 27th July

We plan to run this popular summer holiday club for children at Larchfield Community Centre in Desborough Park. If anyone can spare all or any of those mornings (9.30am—1.00pm) to help with drama, craft activities or catering for refreshments please see me. A current DBS certificate will be needed, but this can be arranged.

OTHER NEWSSenior Saints, Wednesday 11th July at 2.30pm in the Parish Centre

We have great pleasure in welcoming the Rev. John Ainslie who will be conducting our annual Quiet Afternoon this month. It is a month earlier than in past years, as there will NOT be a meeting during August. For most of us, it will be our first meeting with John since his Ordination, and we look forward to sharing quiet thoughts and reflections with him. We welcome any members of the congregation to join us on this occasion.

Margaret Hill/Wendy ChannonFETE UPDATE

Saturday 14th July moves ever closer and our glorious fete needs YOUR help: Wine for both the tombola & The Wines of the World raffle. Please label clearly & ideally drop off at the office. The plan is to start selling raffle tickets a couple of weeks before so we'd like lots of wine in as soon as possible.

Teddies for our teddy tombola, good quality books & bric a brac- they are all still needed.

We have so far been offered 2 gazebos for the day by lovely parishioners- but we need more so our hardworking stallholders will be kept safely in the shade. All offers of shabby chic gazebos happily accepted. To all you keen gardeners out there-please nurture some baby plants for our plant stall.

And of course we need you to get baking for our fabulous cake stall. Following last year's success, there is a plan to put the cake-stall outside again, so perhaps creamy fillings and/or toppings might be best avoided.

The Stalls List is now at the back of the church.

Parish Giving Scheme At the APCM we launched a new way of planned giving to All Saints called the Parish Giving Scheme. This scheme is an easier and more beneficial alternative to either paying by standing order or envelopes. There are leaflets and forms available at the back of church. If you would like more information, please speak to one of the Churchwardens or me.
