Opening Hymn

1. I cannot tell how he whom angels worship should stoop to love the peoples of the earth, or why as shepherd he should seek the wand'rer with his mysterious promise of new birth. But this I know, that he was born of Mary, when Beth'lem's manger was his only home, and that he lived at Nazareth and laboured, and so the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is come. 2. I cannot tell how silently he suffered, as with his peace he graced this place of tears, or how his heart upon the cross was broken,	the crown of pain to three and thirty years. But this I know, he heals the broken-hearted, and stays our sin, and calms our lurking fear, and lifts the burden from the heavy laden, for yet the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is here. 3. I cannot tell how he will win the nations, how he will claim his earthly heritage, how satisfy the needs and aspirations of east and west, of sinner and of sage. But this I know, all flesh shall see his glory, and he shall reap the harvest he has sown, and some glad day his sun shall shine in splen-	dour when he the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is known. 4. I cannot tell how all the lands shall wor- ship, when, at his bidding, ev'ry storm is stilled, or who can say how great the jubilation when ev'ry heart with perfect love is filled. But this I know, the skies will thrill with rap- ture, and myriad, myriad human voices sing, and earth to heav'n, and heav'n to earth will an- swer, 'At last the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is King! William Young Fullerton (1857—1932)

COLLECT

Almighty God, you make all things new: transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of your grace, and in the renewal of our lives make known your heavenly glory; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen.

O T READING 1 Samuel 3: 1—10 (OT p 264) David Emerson

Anthem Lead me, Lord S S Wesley

GOSPEL John 1: 43 — 51
He found Philip and said to him, 'Follow me.' Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, 'We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.' Nathanael said to him, 'Can anything good come out of Nazareth?' Philip said to him, 'Come and see.' When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, 'Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!' Nathanael asked him, 'Where did you come to know me?' Jesus answered, 'I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.' Nathanael replied, 'Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!'. Jesus answered, 'Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.' And he said to him, 'Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.'

Offertory Hymn

1. In Christ alone my hope is found,
he is my light, my strength, my song ;
this Cornerstone, this solid Ground,
through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
when fears are stilled, when strivings
cease !
My Comforter, my All in All,
here in the love of Christ I stand.

2. In Christ alone ! — who took on flesh,
fullness of God in helpless babe !
This gift of love and righteousness,
scorned by the ones he came to save :
till on that cross as Jesus died,
the wrath of God was satisfied —
for every sin on him was laid ;
here in the death of Christ I live.

3. There in the ground his body lay,
light of the world by darkness slain ;
Then bursting forth in glorious day
up from the grave he rose again !
And as he stands in victory
sin's curse has lost its grip on me,
for I am his and he is mine —
bought with the precious blood of Christ.

4. No guilt in life, no fear in death,
this is the power of Christ in me ;
from life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man,
can ever pluck me from his hand ;
till he returns or calls me home,
here in the power of Christ I'll stand !

SHARED VISION FOR THE FUTURE OF ALL SAINTS

An inter-active meeting at All Saints School on Saturday 20th January meet for coffee/tea and cakes at 9.00am for a 9.30am start
The planned finish time is 12 noon.

Please join us for an opportunity to help develop our Shared Vision for the future of All Saints along with the community we serve.

There is much going well at All Saints, however we also have some challenges to face in terms of the future, sustainability and our presence in the local community. We are holding a visioning morning at All Saints School where we will meet to review where we are, where we wish to be and how we plan to get there. This will include looking at our Sunday Morning welcome, the Missional Activity being developed through PMC and the overall vision for the future.

This is an opportunity to have a real input and influence on our direction, please put the date in your diary, and sign the form at the back of the Church to aid planning for space and refreshments.
