Lord Jesus Christ, we thank you that in this wonderful sacrament you have given us the memorial of your passion: grant us so to reverence the sacred mysteries of your body and blood that we may know within ourselves and show forth in our lives the fruits of your redemption; for you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

GOSPEL John 6: 51 — 58

Jesus said to the Jews: 'I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.' The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' So Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; or my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live for ever.'

Sermon Elizabeth Bryson

Offertory Hymn 543 Lord, enthroned in heavenly splendour

Communion Hymn

1. I come with joy, a child of God,
forgiven, loved and free,
the life of Jesus to recall,
in love laid down for me.
2. I come with Christians far and near
to find, as all are fed,
the new community of love
in Christ's communion bread.
3. As Christ breaks bread, and bids us
share,
each proud division ends.
- The love that made us, makes us one,
and strangers now are friends.
4. The Spirit of the risen Christ,
unseen, but ever near,
is in such friendship better known,
alive among us here.
5. Together met, together bound
by all that God has done,
we'll go with joy, to give the world
the love that makes us one.
- Brian Wren (b. 1936)*

Closing Hymn 219 Of the glorious body telling

Blessed and praised be Jesus Christ, in the most Holy Sacrament.
Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in Excelsis.

Summer Fete Saturday 27th June Our Summer Fete is the most successful fund-raising event each year and this is due to our willing band of helpers, but we always need lots of them to make this happen. Thank you to all those who have already signed up, but we still have some slots which need filling and some back-up to give stallholders a break and tea-akers!. Any new ideas for stalls, etc. are always welcome, providing we have space. There are information sheets at the back of the church if you would like to know more or contact me direct.

There are now boxes at the back of the church for goods for sale at the Fete and a list for those who are able to make cakes, scones, etc. Please turn out your lofts etc. as the more we can sell, the more money we make!
